

Compliance testing should be conducted at the PSAP, county, or statistical area level, not at the state or national level. Wireless 9-1-1 accuracy testing should be required at the local community level